

Mary Matz

American, 35 years of experience as a journalist, writer, advertising copywriter, book editor, magazine writer, newspaper owner.

Prague experience: teaching English at Charles University (6 years), writer/editor for English-teaching magazine for Czech secondary school students and teachers (8 years), magazine writer for Czech tourism magazine (2 years), other freelance writing and editing. Author of two "readers" for Czech students, one textbook on American life and culture for Czech adults; external consultant for the New Revised Maturita in English for Czech secondary schools.